

Travel Information

Transportation from the Airport to Haifa:

- Shuttle Service run by "Amal Taxi Co." provides transportation from Ben-Gurion Airport to Haifa, to the hotel or the Technion. The cost is 85 Israeli Shekels (about $23) during the week and 100 ILS during the weekend. The service runs at all times, taxis are available coming out of gate 02 directly on the right side.
- Train is also available from the airport to Haifa, the terminal is located on level S of the Landside Building, adjacent to the Greeters' Hall. For details please go to "Schedules and Fares" at <http://www.rail.co.il/EN/Pages/Homepage.aspx> . Your departure station is "Ben-Gurion Airport", and your destination station is "Haifa Hof Ha-Carmel". Upon arriving in Haifa, you will need to take a taxi from the train station to your hotel; the day fare is about 40 Israeli Shekels. Please be advised that the train does not run from Friday afternoon until approx. 19:30 on Saturday night.
- Taxi from the Airport to Haifa will cost about $80-$100 (night fare is higher).

Transportation within Haifa:

Hof Carmel central bus station is adjacent to the train station.
To get to Merkaz HaCarmel, where the hotels are, take bus # 3, 133,132
To get to the Technion, take bus # 11

For more information please see Egged Bus company's web-site:
<http://mslworld.egged.co.il/EggedTimeTable/WebForms/wfrmMain.aspx?width=1024&language=en&company=1&state=>

Taxis are also available at the train station and should cost 40-50 ILS

Credit cards & Currency Exchange:

- All major credit cards are accepted in Israel.
- Most banks, including those at the Airport and on Campus, will exchange major currencies, such as USD and Euro, for Israeli Shekels (ILS).
- Israeli Shekels can also be obtained at most Automatic Teller Machines (ATMs), including the Airport and on Campus.